

A new church is Born

Contributed by Nigel Wyborn

A new church is born in Downham Market. living the kingdom.

Our first service consisted of the sharing of a roast lamb dinner until we were satiated, followed by a lovely time of worship.

Andrew shared the calling on his life and the vision of the church moving forward together in service of the kingdom in our community.

Contact us and share the vision.