

Yippidee doodah yipidee day!!!

Contributed by Hannah Bywater

Hello! I can't believe where we are right now. It's all going so quickly but now I feel right at home with my daddy (roll on the cheese I know).

And I know the wonderful youth feel more at home too - we get fed for starters!

Anyway, I'm at home with my family now and that's where I belong. (Even if we are a bit strange!! But families always are)

Peace and Out, and God Bless (achoo!)

Hannah (Random Showers)

P.S: I'm trying to think of a way
I can work the picture of the fruit in with fantastic christian message...but to be honest, I just think it's cute!
