

Happy New Year from Little Cogs - January 2007

Contributed by Katrina Miller

Hi, Happy New Year 2007 to you all. Little Cogs certainly had a busy time at the end of last year. The children performed a wonderful Nativity Play which was beautiful in its simplicity, the children told the story of the First Christmas and all the children took part from the youngest aged 2 to the oldest aged 10. Thank you to all the children and to all the parents for the support they gave to Julia and myself. The children also enjoyed a great Christmas party in December with games, food and lots of fun. After a short break over the New Year Little Cogs has started back up in earnest with ever growing numbers. Don't forget all children aged from birth to age 11 are catered for and if you're too old for Little Cogs then there are loads of things happening for the Youth within the Church, everyone is welcome. This term we're going to study the life of Jesus. There will be other things happening too of course we hope to hold a special Mother's Day service in March and of course Easter comes around very quickly. Why don't you come and join us and let your children enjoy the fun of Little Cogs on a Sunday morning at Stowbridge Village Hall, doors open at 10.30 am for coffee and the service starts at 11 am (except for the second Sunday in the month when the service starts at 3 pm – no formal Little Cogs on that day but we still give the little ones something to occupy them during the service). If you would like to find out more about Little Cogs or about Grace Community Church in general please contact me

With very best wishes for 2007 Katrina
