

A Poem, by D R Usher.

Contributed by david usher

Two edged Sword

We need to be the doers, the doers of the lord,

It is not right just to listen, without doing of the word.

We have to proclaim the good news and gospel, everyone revere,

We need to declare the word of God so everyone can hear.

We need to instigate the word of God, with pride and with good faith.

Avoiding godless chatter as that as no assemblage in this place.

The word of God is Gospel and all the news is good,

The words are from the bible and are covered with Gods blood.

We should look forward in our prayer for all of Gods good grace,

The only time to look back, is to eliminate the bad we've faced,

The sword of the word that God has given, has an edge on both its sides,

One to slice your way forward and the other your past elide.

Cut out all your wayward past, this is not required here,

This is where we remove our sins and then we all can cheer,

We are lifting up the word of God; this is the only way to expand,

To draw the community into the church, forever and with no end.

By David R Usher.