

Guess who?

Contributed by Ben Miller

Hey everyone,

I haven't written in this blog for ages and it looks like Big Ush was the last one to do so anyway (gotta love the joke David!) hehe...erm....well...we now have a fully functioning youth club on a friday night, (still debating on the name - but hey! we'll get there eventually!) We have dance mats, pool tables, darts boards, tv's, dvds and our very own TUCK SHOP! If you haven't been yet i recommend you check it out - it's awesome! God is doing some awesome things! For more information, please speak to our amazing youth pastor - ANDY BRADLEY!!!

We recently had another youth sleepover (or should i say lack of sleepover - 5am!!!!) It was a great laugh once again with a new game - battle of the flying footballs!!

Ok then....well..... got to go now so i'll write next time i get the chance

God Bless everyone
